

Scheme to attract more Southern 100 marshals

Working with the Southern 100 Club we have launched a new travel discount scheme to help boost marshal numbers at the 'friendly races'. The initiative is intended to encourage those who travelled to the Island to marshal at last year's Isle of Man Steam Packet Company International Southern 100 Road Races to return in 2017 to volunteer their time. Details of the discount scheme and booking forms have been sent out to everyone eligible, and online registration for those intending to marshal this year has opened at www.southern100.com. We have been title sponsor of the event for almost two decades and are looking forward to the 2017 Southern 100, which takes place from 10th to 13th July around the 4.25-mile Billown course.

4WD Club events set to attract visitors to the Isle of Man

We have continued our title sponsorship of the Isle of Man Four Wheel Drive Club's Steam Packet Company Trial series for the 2017 season. The series sees a number of trials held around the Island for off-road vehicles, with drivers competing for victory in classes for short, medium and long wheelbase vehicles. A round typically consists of negotiating a vehicle between eight pairs of cane gates on various types of terrain with the aim of not hitting the canes. It is a test of the driver's skill and depending on the type of terrain the strength of the vehicle. The Club has also confirmed a number of visiting 4WD enthusiasts are planning to travel to the Isle of Man this year, including the Red Rose Land Rover Club and the J33P Club. Our Chief Executive Mark Woodward said: 'The club's busy calendar of events attracts local drivers and visitors to the Island, and a number of trips from off-Island drivers are already confirmed for 2017. The provision of popular and properly organised off-road events which bring people to the Isle of Man from across the UK is a benefit to the local community, and something we are happy to support.'

Romanian charity mission for MGP competitors

A group of Manx Grand Prix competitors completed an almost 4,000-mile humanitarian mission to Romania with our support. Late last year Jim Hunter, Ian Pert and Ronnie Russell loaded a van with items much-needed in the country, including children's clothing, toys and toiletries, and drove to Radauti and Lasi to make deliveries to charities. The trip was inspired by TT legend Joey Dunlop, who regularly delivered essential provisions to orphanages in the Balkans, and run in memory of Island road racer Billy Redmayne, who died in a crash in 2016. Travelling under the banner Van Trip for Billy, the trio were fundraising to cover the cost of the journey and we provided free transport between the Isle of Man and UK for the team and van. The team promised that any donated money left after meeting costs would be handed to the Billy Redmayne Memorial Fund, and earlier this year they handed over £4,300 to the fund. Jim said: 'We are extremely grateful for all the help we've had and would like to thank the Steam Packet Company for its support, which ensured the journey could go ahead and more money could be donated to the Billy Redmayne Memorial Fund.'

Pack more in - travel by ferry

A leisurely holiday, a romantic break, an action-packed getaway...the perfect adventure begins when you travel by ferry.

You can enjoy all the comfort of the on-board facilities, including variety of seating options, plenty of legroom and a wide selection of refreshments.

As well as the convenience of taking your car away there are no luggage fees, so you can load up with everything you need and simply drive on board to begin your break, arriving relaxed and refreshed, ready to start your adventure.

You can travel this spring with fares starting from just £88 each way for a car and two people, so make your booking now and all you have to do is choose where to go.

When you sail into Liverpool you are just minutes from the motorway network, and the opening of The Bay Gateway has made getting from Heysham to the M6 even quicker. Whichever port you choose you can soon be on your way to your final destination, whether its near or far.

If you're feeling active pack the walking boots, bicycles and maybe a tent and spend some time exploring the Lake District with its majestic landscape, spectacular scenery and beautiful villages. Of course, places like Conistown, Keswick and Ambleside aren't just for the energetic! There are wonderful restaurants, quirky shops, traditional pubs and plenty of tearooms if you prefer the pace a little slower.

Further east is the stunning cathedral city of Durham, with the River Wear running through its heart. You can enjoy a stroll through the winding streets, from Palace Green - home of the cathedral and castle - through Market Place and over the Silver Street bridge to sample the independent restaurants, bars and cafes among the historic buildings. It's also an excellent base to explore more of the north east, from bustling Newcastle to the fascinating Beamish living museum.

If a city break is your perfect getaway, then Manchester is the place to be. You can spend your days exploring the famous-name stores and independent shops, then head out to experience the famous nightlife scene, from traditional pubs to ultra-modern cocktail bars. There's also a vibrant music scene, museums to discover and, of course, a proud sporting heritage - football fans won't want to miss the National Football Museum!

For seaside scenery, pretty villages and historic castles, a tour along the coast of North Wales is ideal; from Chester you can head west into Wales and take in the sites of Colwyn Bay, Llandudno, Conwy, Bangor and Caernarfon, or head inland for the spectacular scenery of Snowdonia National Park. The choice is yours when you enjoy the freedom of taking your car on the ferry.

Of course, we also offer sailings to Ireland, where there's a world of treasures to be explored, from historic cities to rolling hills and dramatic coastlines to pretty villages. You can travel to either Dublin or Belfast, but why choose? Sail into one city and home from the other and you not only enjoy the best of both but can explore the countryside in between.
