

Connecting the Isle of Man with Ireland all year round

Sail to the Isle of Man throughout 2026/27 with our updated Larne and Dublin services.

From April 2026, we'll sail from Larne three times a week, all year round, making the Isle of Man easy to reach in every season. During high season, you can also sail directly from Dublin twice a week, giving you even more choice for an Isle of Man getaway.

Whether you're planning a short break, a family trip, or a full island adventure, our ferry routes offer flexible, reliable ways to travel, with great-value offers and holiday packages waiting for you on the next page.
